Discussion and sharing of thoughts:

1) Suggestion was given by Mr Salunkhe if parenting sessions could be conducted in earlier months. Principal Madam replied that sessions are taken by external people and need to adjust as per their time management.

2) Mr Shah shared his thoughts on the leaves given in between the papers.
Principal Madam replied that need to abide by the number of working days we had to schedule the time table accordingly.

3) One of the PTA member suggested if we can display the VPA daily learning through a presentation. Madam replied we do that as per the programs initiated by school eg ISHANODAYA. Children could display their talent for a good cause.

4) Mrs. Pingali suggested if number of stars per week could be increased.
Madam replied that it could be discussed and informed later.

5) Mrs Smita Balgi appreciated the programmes taken up in the school. She requested if teachers can encourage students to participate in different areas except academics.
Maam answered as this batch of 11th is already a pro batch, children themselves take initiative to such programs.

Chairperson thanked all the EPTA members for their co-operation. The meeting concluded at 11:00am.
